

Women's Leadership Forum 2020 Scholarship APPLICATION

The Women's Leadership Forum (WLF) was established in October 2018 by Colette Colclough, VP of Human Resources at Maryland Public Television (MPT). The WLF was established to serve women who have a desire to cultivate their lives, careers, and community. The WLF is a venue for women to come together and experience other positive, influential and uplifting women from all walks of life. Women are able to acquire knowledge, obtain resources, and make connections that will help them elevate to reach their goals.

The WLF has acquired special funding to provide scholarships through individuals and corporate sponsors for women who cannot readily afford to attend. Please complete the required information below by January 13, 2020, 5pm, DEADLINE. There is only 1 scholarship per person. Should you have additional needs, please email the Women's Leadership Forum at wlf@mpt.org. Scholarship recipients will be notified by via email, February 1, 2020.
